Rolloffs Start In Tenpins

By JIM TAYLOR

They start playing tenpins for keeps today at Gibson's Bowladrome in the first block of the 24-game city zone championships.

An unexpectedly large entry has been received for the sixth annual competition, forcing an extra shift today. Bowlers will compete at 1.30 and 6.30 today at Gibson's, then switch to Strathcona Bowling Alleys tomorrow. Final two shifts are scheduled next weekend.

Out of the maze of competitors will come the two to represent the city in the B.C. roll-offs. From there the next step is the B.C.-Alberta competition, followed by the Canadian final in the Windsor, Ont., home of defending champion Ray Bala.

All four former city champions are entered in the event—Ken Munn, who won it in 1954 and 1957, Andy Palmer (1955), Ron Coulter (B.C. champion in 1956) and Len Murrant, last year's winner.

There is no handicap in the tournament, but the lower-average bowlers get their chance via a special under-165-average group, which offers special prizes. These bowlers are still eligible for the main award.

Today's draw:

S. Nipp, N. Gamble, J. Lim, A. Palmer, L. Russell (9-10).
J. Hobby, L. Hobbis, J. Ferrie, R. Lou, W. Noonan (19-20).

6.30 P.M.

(Alleys in parentheses.)

Alberta, Manitoba Top-Rated

Western Rinks Brier Favorites

QUEBEC — Western rinks, triumphant 24 times in 29 years of competition, are once again classed as favorites in the Macdonald's Brier curling championships which begin Monday.

(Radio broadcasts of the curling action can be heard over CBU Tuesday and Friday at 5.15 p.m. There will be no television coverage.)

Manitoba, which has won the Canadian title 15 times, and Alberta, with seven previous victories, are the two most highly-regarded rinks in the week-long round robin tournament.

Saskatchewan, which has won only one title, is rated a closed third by the bettors.

Nova Scotia won the inaugural in 1927 and again in 1951—the last time the championship has been east of Manitoba. Ontario has also won two titles, while British Columbia and Northern Ontario have each won one.

Still looking for their first championship are Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick and Quebec.

ONE REPEATER

Bud Fisher's Newfoundland rink is the only repeat entry from last year, when Matt Baldwin's Edmonton rink won the title for Alberta in Victoria.

Herb Olson's Edmonton rink defeated Baldwin three straight times in winning the Northern Alberta championship this year, making the Olson rink one of the big favorites in this year's tournament.

Another strongly favored rink is the Richardson quartet from Regina. The Richardsons — two brothers and two cousins—will be out to duplicate the feat of the Campbell brothers of Avonlea, who gave Saskatchewan its first title in 1955.

E. B. (Ole) Olson, 70-year-old father of Herb Olson, who is skipping the Alberta rink, is in charge of the ice-making duties at the Quebec Coliseum, which seats 10,000.

TO SCOTLAND

Following the Canadian championships, the winner will travel to Edinburgh to meet Scotland's best curlers in a best-of-five series for the Scotch Cup. The series will begin March 9.

Personnel of the competing rinks:

BRITISH COLUMBIA — Barry Naismark, Fred Langen, Evan Wolfe, Dick Beddoes, Vancouver.

ALBERTA—Herb Olson, Barry Coleman, George Dufresne, Merv Dufresne, Edmonton.

SASKATCHEWAN—Ernie Richardson, Arnie Richardson, Garnet Richardson, Wes Richardson, Regina.

MANITOBA—Dr. Dick Bird, Ed Tipping, Gunnar Nielson, Bill Oliver, Winnipeg.

NORTHERN ONTARIO — Darwin Wark, Dennis Stephen, Les Sutton, John Jones, Fort William.

ONTARIO—Ted Sellers, John Grant, Harold Lawrie, Carl Sellers, Unionville.

QUEBEC — John Bergmann, Doug Norris, Harvey McCaig, John Doran, Montreal.

NEW BRUNSWICK — Dick McCully, Cec MacManus, Ed Shutt, Irv Mitton, Moncton.

NOVA SCOTIA—Art Forbes, Morell Darragh, Lawrence Carter, Sid Chabassol, Amherst.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND — Jiggs MacDonald, Doug Cameron, George Dillon, "Musty" Burke, Charlottetown.

NEWFOUNDLAND—Bud Fisher, Bill Howell, Jack Gullage, Bill Piercey, Cornerbrook.

Ed Lubanski Cracks ABC All-Events Mark

ST. LOUIS — A second all-time American Bowling Congress record was shattered within 24 hours of the setting of another new high when Ed Lubanski completed his doubles and singles play in the 1959 tournament late Thursday night.

Scoring 652 in the doubles and continuing his sensational bowling with a 764 series in the singles, Lubanski became the first man in the 56-year-history of the ABC to score more than 2,100 in the all-events. His total was 2,116, an average of 235 for the nine games.

The old record for the all-events was 2,088, set in 1957 by Jim Spaulding of Louisville.

Lubanski also had a hand in setting the first record on Wednesday, rolling a brilliant 700 as he led the Pfeiffer Beer team from Detroit to an all-time team high of 3,243 pins.
